About Us:

Irish American News has been serving the Irish and Irish-American community in Chicagoland since our publication debuted in March, 1977.

This March we will cross the 40 year mark! Current publisher, Cliff Carlson, bought the paper from the papers founder, Bob Burns in 1991. Since that time we have published over 300 issues and counting.

Several Irish organizations in Chicagoland have partnered with us to produce their official newsletters which we mail to almost 100 percent of their memberships.

Those groups are:

Gaelic Park

Will County Irish

Irish American Heritage Center

We also mail newspapers monthly to the membership of the Irish Fellowship Club and the West Suburban Irish.

We have embraced the worldwide web since the early 2000's.

If you go online to our website, www.irishamericannews.com, you will find back issues going all the way back to 2006.

Our digital issue of the newspaper links our advertisers to their websites, so our readers interested in their products or services simply click on their ad and it takes them direct to websites and/or email.

We support as many benefits for those in need, and charitable causes as we can, with stories and advertising about their events, and offer free or deeply discounted ads to many of them.

American Irish Media

If you are interested to reaching Irish and Irish-Americans across the country we have a group of 9 Irish newspapers around the USA that you can advertise and editorialize in, and you only have to deal with one person.

Papers include: Chicago, Ohio, Minnesota, Denver, Philadelphia, Boston, New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco with a total distribution of over 100,000. Call Cliff at 847-872-0700 for more information.
